LETTERS FROM SERVICEMEN:

Somewhere in Korea,
Dear Reeces: I am sending you my new address so I can get the BYLINE again. I got two of them forwarded to me yesterday, and expect more today. Here I am, in "dirty" Korea, where you can't keep clean. The dust blows and gets on everything! We manage to keep pretty busy most of the time, as we still have classes and other training, even over here. We moved up here yesterday and may be moved again any time. I guess I could tell you what I think of the people and Korea itself--but haven't the time to go in for long descriptions right now. Please tell everyone in Brisbane hello for me, and send me Howard Green's address? I enjoy reading the Byline very much, as it is a very good little paper, and I want to thank you again for sending it to me.

your friend, DON (MICKY)

HUNTER.--USMC

Somewhere in Korea
Dear Reeces: Just a few lines to let you know that I must have enemies in Washington--seems I spent about 5 days on that new job and then they put me back on guard duty. To make things even worse, I am right back in the middle of a stinking rice paddy! It has been raining for the last 3 days and it sort of flooded the place. I would say--just offhand--that we are now under about 6 inches of water! I would appreciate it if you sent me Eddie Baron's address, and also Mickey Hunter's. Also please say hello to everyone for me. Always your pal,

HOWARD GREEN-USMC

U.S. NAVAL HOSPITAL
MARE ISLAND-VALLEJO

DEAR REECES: Just wanted you to know that the back issues of the Byline have reached me. I got a bang out of reading all the "old news". We had quite a disaster here last Monday--I accidentally shaved off my mustache! I'm afraid life will not be the same without my pride and joy! To pass the time, I built a model of an aircraft carrier. It was supposed to float--so we tried it out in a kiddie's hot bath water--it sunk, and fell apart! Governor Warren is expected here today--they took all the names of us California guys, for some reason. Don't know why. Well, that's all the news scoops I can think of on "Operation Eddie Baron" so will close and go to chow.
yours--EDDIE BARON---USMC

FOR THE JUNIOR BOOKWORM:

THE WONDERFUL PENNY-by Elizabeth
'Alice Theis--CHAPTER IX:

The Fairy Queen's eyes seemed to contain all the velvet of pansies, all the gleam of stardust. "Truly, my godchild, the Penny Man has found a true friend", she said.

Bunny, overcome with bashfulness, could scarcely speak, "But all credit for this friendship is due to the Penny Man", he said.

"Not true", spoke the little dwarf, "It was your compassion that paved the way for our friendship."

"And that is why you will be rewarded", smiled the Queen. "Ere dusk falls, you will find your heart's desire!"

Bunny then heard the Penny Man relating the adventures of his travels into the Land of Mortal Men. He told of how he had been cast aside many times--because of his deformity. "If you had been perfect, your journey would have ended soon, in some miser's chest," said the Fairy Queen. The Penny Man nodded sagely--"But when I became crippled, I fear I was badly discouraged."

"THAT'S HOW Fate showed Wisdom. 'Twas my desire to find if compassion still lingered in the Land of Mortals. I find it does; in a child's understanding heart."

Happy to be in such wonderful company, the little earth boy just sat content, his legs doubled beneath him. Thankful he was at his good fortune.

The Fairy Queen waved her Magic Wand and assembled all the gnomes, elves, sprites, goblins, zephyrs, and fairies. "I have sad news for you, my Beloved Subjects," she said as they gathered close. "In the Land of Mortals, imagination is on the wane. 'Tis not well that such a condition arises. For without it, the toiling mortal cannot seek solace from his hard labors; the invalid cannot seek surcease from pain; the aged cannot renew their youth; the dreamer cannot dream his dreams; the little child's heart will become a vacancy."

The court gasped in astonishment. How had this foul thing been allowed to happen? "Travel far and wide to the Earth World", came the Royal command--"We must counteract this evil." and she directed each to his appointed task, and last she directed the fairies present to scatter sunshine and happiness over the whole face of the earth. Far and wide her subjects flew forth to do their bidding.

WHAT'S THE SCORE????--by Ron Wright

On Sunday, May 6th, the Brisbane Athletics baseball team started training for the summer league. Having won the championship last year, at Flood Park in Palo Alto, the "B.A." are coming out with a better baseball club this year. Jim Hatchel, Chuck Donley, Ray Rosa, and Gene Lorenzo, of Daly City, will contribute their talents for the aid of Brisbane. Bob Butcher of South San Francisco will also be in the local club. The "B.A." baseball club consists of boys that go to high school and are good enough to play on the team. Rich Trantham, Mansel Roland, Don Delbon, Larry Blanchard, and Leo Villar are some of the players from Brisbane. Ed Davenport will be on the job coaching this year, and with this combination, the "B.A." will be hard to beat this season.

The Jefferson Varsity won over the league leading San Mateo Bearcats by the score of 4 to 0 recently. Ed Cherignio, pitching ace for Jeff, won his own ball game by belting a drive into deep center field that didn't stop rolling until two runs came across the plate with big Ed coming on down to score also.

The San Mateo Fresh-Soph won over Palo Alto 17 to 2, while Jeff only won by 3 to 0. Well, last Thursday, April 27th, Jeff and San Mateo tangled to find out what Jeff could do against them. It was almost a slaughter at 12 to 2, with Jeff coming up on the winning end. The Jeff's caught the Bearcats off guard as the well-known sluggers from Jeff came up and waited out walks with an occasional hit, to get five runs in the first inning. Don Delbon turned in his usual pitching performance by allowing only one hit.

That's all for this time, see you again in the near future.

RON WRIGHT, your
Sports Reporter

LATE SPORTS FLASHES

JEFF took third place in the P.A.L. Swimming Relays May 4th, at the Jefferson High pool. Palo Alto won first place, while Sequoia placed second. The P.A.L. 100-yard relays in B-class Record was broken this time by a second--being from 49.7 down to 49.2.

Also, the Jeff Varsity won over Half Moon Bay by the score of 8 to 1 on Tuesday, May 8th, with Charles Donley pitching.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Mrs. Reece: The Girl Scout Cookie Sale Committee wishes to thank you for your help during the recent cookie sale. Without the backing of our merchants, civic organizations, newspapers, radio, and television broadcasts, we could not have made so much for the Girl Scouts. The camping trips for the girls this year, and in the future, will be more enjoyable than before, thanks to your aid.

Sincerely yours,

VETS: BETTER CLAIM YOUR EXEMPTIONS

"Don't put off filing for your tax exemption" is the joint advice given to veterans in San Mateo Co. by Floyd D. Granger, vet's Service Officer, and Assessor O.B. Hempstead.

"This year's period for applying for the constitutional tax exemption on $1000 worth of property began on March 5th" they pointed out. "and the May 28th deadline is fast approaching. Only approximately 11,500 have applied out of the total of 18,976 veterans to whom exemptions were granted last year."

They pointed out the experience of previous years, when a last-minute rush has forced many veterans to stand in line, and other vets showing up after the deadline have had to be told they were too late to take advantage of this substantial benefit. The state constitution provides this exemption for any veteran owning not more than $5000 worth of property. The exemption applies also to certain widows, mothers and fathers of deceased veterans.

"Veterans must appear at the assessor's office in person each year to renew their exemption," the two officials advise. "They must bring along their discharges or similar proof of veteran status if they are applying at that office for the first time." Vets who can't get to the assessor's office during business hours can have their wives file for them. Those owning property in a different county can file with the assessor in their county of residence. Exemptions from city and county taxes must be filed for separately.

SCHOOL SAFETY PATROL TO HOLD PARADE:

Over 1500 elementary school pupils from all parts of the County will march in Redwood City on Fri. May 11, at 10:00 a.m. The occasion is the annual San Mateo Co. School Safety Patrol Parade. Scheduled for last Friday, it was held up by rain.

County Supt. Tormey has organized the get-together, together with the school district supts. and police chiefs. A program at the Fox Theater will conclude the parade. All are turning out to pay their respects to the fine work being done by the elementary school safety patrols. Where junior officers are on duty, traffic accidents do not occur.

Brisbane is one of the districts represented in the parade. The line of march will be from Elwood street along Brewster to Broadway, thence along Broadway to the Fox Theater, in Redwood City. An ice cream treat will wind up the day. The necessary finances have been subscribed by service clubs and the Seventeenth District PTA.

ACTING POSTMASTER ON VACATION:

Mrs. Yvonne Ingram, sentimental and emotional over a gift presented to her by Postoffice employees here, flew to Los Angeles last Saturday, via United Airlines, for a week's vacation with her nephew L.D. Straach, and family. Mr. Straach is an executive with the Mantz Television Co.

RED CROSS MOBILE UNIT TO BE HERE:

The San Mateo County Chapter of American Red Cross will have it's Mobile Unit Blood Bank here in Brisbane from 2 to 7 p.m. on May 29th. The unit will be stationed at the Recreation Center. This is the opportunity for every "red-blooded" local citizen to give his pint of blood for the boys in Korea. Incidentally, the unit can handle three people every ten minutes. Remember, it's MAY 29TH!

CANDIDATE FOR JEFF TRUST:

In Brisbane on Wednesday, May 9th, to remind us to vote on the Jefferson High School Bonds and the Trustee-ship on May 18th, from 1 to 7 p.m.--was Mr. GUY G. KITSON, another of the candidates for the office of Trustee. He suggested we vote in the afternoon so we could vote on both issues.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL:

The First Baptist Church on Visitation Avenue has announced plans for a daily vacation Bible School to be held June 11--22nd. A fine staff of capable teachers will make this a pleasurable and profitable two weeks for all the children of Brisbane. Make plans now for your youngsters to take advantage of these hours of supervised games, singing, Bible instruction, and handwork.

LEGION AUX. 26th DIST. LUNCHEON:

A luncheon held at the Claremar Restaurant in San Mateo on May 2nd by the 26th District American Legion Auxiliary, presided over by Mildred Stanley of San Carlos, District chairman for the Poppy program. She spoke on three programs sponsored from Poppy funds, being Rehabilitation, Child Welfare and Education. The Poppies to go on sale the Friday and Saturday before Memorial Day are made by hospitalized Veterans, giving them an opportunity to earn spending money.

THE YOUNGER SET--by Tillie Teenager

Have you seen the latest style in wearing your levi's, girls? DOLORES JACKSON is wearing a green plaid shirt with hers, with the shirt tail hanging out. On you, it looks good, Dolores!

On Sunday, May 6th, some of the kids journeyed down to Fort Ord to meet some army friends. They also drove through Monterey and Carmel, and spend the whole day just enjoying themselves. The lucky ones? Why, Priscilla Green, Gayle Hutchison, and Jack & Joe Eberle, of course!

Some of the "Teenagers" from Brisbane enjoyed themselves hugely at the dance over at Jeff Hi--and among the "jitters" were Sharon Storck and Sherry Lawrence. Others from the hometown were there, too.

Just in case you haven't heard, Buck Shulda sailed to Europe two weeks ago. So, when we get his address, how about writing and giving him the latest news of what's going around these parts?

That's all for this time. Be seeing you soon!

TILLIE TEEN-AGER.

LOCAL RESIDENTS HAVE WEEKEND GUESTS:

Reverend and Mrs. Brewer Beam and family, of Roseville, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Bollinger of 200 Kings Road. The Reverend Beam is a brother of Mrs. Bollinger. On Sunday, he was the guest speaker at the evening service at the First Baptist Church here in Brisbane.

BRISBANE'S NEW HOME OWNERS:

The Real Estate business may be slow right now, but a lot of activity has been going on in Brisbane in the past few months! Among the buyers of homes here are LeRoy & Catherine Watkins (who purchased #460 San Bruno Avenue)--James Lynch and family, now residing at 164 San Benito Road--Leslie and Helena Duxbury will soon move into #584 San Bruno Avenue--Charles & Norma Lee have bought Acre 16 in the Acres--George and Jean Davis are the new proud owners of #228 Klamath (and the proud parents of a baby born this week, we hear)--Frank and Laura Johnson are building a home on Lots 10 and 11 in Block 18--and Frank Rendozza is having a new 5 room home built for him on Lots 25, 26, 27 and 28 in Block 19. WELCOME TO BRISBANE, NEW NEIGHBORS!

LOCAL PEOPLE ATTEND "MERRY WIDOW":

Mr. and Mrs. Ingram, and Mr. and Mrs. Cavitt Moon attend the Civic Light Opera performance of "The Merry Widow" at the Curran Theater last Friday night, after a nice chinese dinner at Chinatown. How RELAXED can some people get??

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY:

The Reverend R. S. Beal, of the First Baptist Church of Brisbane was honored at a surprise birthday party given by the congregation of his church after the evening service last Sunday. Refreshments were served from an appropriately decorated table, featuring a large birthday cake.
